

DEPARTMENT OF SOCIOLOGY

In view of the decision reached by a large meeting last night of members of the University to participate today, Tuesday, in a special programme of lectures and discussions, I would be grateful if members of teaching staff could re-schedule their normal teaching. Everything possible should be done to ensure that students can satisfactorily complete the schemes of study for the summer term.

Peter Townsend
14.5.68.