Statement Regarding 7th May, 1968.

On duty at Wivenhoe House, May 7th, called by Mr. Davis, and went to passage by back door at Wivenhoe House. Students with arms linked were preventing two lecturers from freely proceeding down the passage. I then joined hands with Dr. Tillet in preventing the students from pressing forward.

Students then read from a prepared paper. After this questions were asked, and the lecturer replied.

There was a lot of noise and shouting. The police arrived and escorted the lecturers. I returned to Porters' Desk.
